RE: Scott Brown – Updated Questionnaire – US Senate

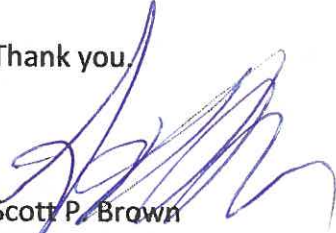

Board Members:

As has been conveyed, I am resubmitting my questionnaire for your records.

When I first submitted it, I inadvertently misread Question 1. Clearly based upon my answers throughout the document it should have been a yes.

On questions 15 and 17 – while I wrote my response down, explaining my position, I should have circled yes on both. It is my understanding that because I did not circle my response as yes or no, those questions were counted as a no. Once again, the answers should have been yes on both.

Thank you.
